

Christopher L. Thacker

Business & Commercial Litigation Real Estate & Banking

Christopher's practice is focused on Business Litigation—including Business Torts, Banking Litigation, Land Use, Antitrust, Trade Regulation & Franchise, Intellectual Property, Civil Rights and Negligence Litigation. He has represented individuals and businesses—from family-run “mom and pop” businesses to Fortune 500 companies—in venues ranging from state district court to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Immediately after law school, he served as a law clerk to the Honorable John M. Rogers of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Christopher is a graduate of Yale College and the University of Kentucky College of Law, where he was a member of the Moot Court National Team, the Kentucky Law Journal and the Honor Council. Before attending law school, he worked at the Heritage Foundation in Washington D.C. and was Executive Director of the Bible Literacy Project, an educational non-profit. Christopher formerly served as Chair of the Kentucky Executive Branch Ethics Commission. He has also served as a Special Justice on the Kentucky Supreme Court. Christopher currently serves as a member of the Winchester/Clark County Planning Commission.

A father of five, Christopher is active in the Regina Pacis Chaplaincy of the Diocese of Lexington.
