

Zach Cato

Business & Commercial Litigation
Business Transactions & General Counsel
Real Estate & Banking

Zach serves clients in many areas including litigation, collections, real estate, homeowner association, planning/zoning, employment, and general corporate matters. He seeks to understand his clients, and to provide them with valuable information and advice, which enables them to make reasonable, informed decisions.

Prior to joining Billings Law Firm, Zach practiced at a regional insurance defense firm in the areas of personal injury, property damage, subrogation, wrongful death, and employment matters. After law school, he worked in risk management for a top global law firm.

Zach is a founding member of Kentucky Lawyers for the Arts, Inc., a non profit attorney referral service for Kentucky artists and art organizations. He is active with LexArts Business Volunteers for the Arts. Zach speaks on the topics of 501(c)(3) applications and legal issues facing artists. He is a dedicated listener of (too) many podcasts.
